

Master of Civil Engineering Program, Mahidol University

Master of Civil Engineering Program, Mahidol University offers scholarships to students based on their academic merit. The number of available scholarships varies from year to year. The types of scholarships that are typically awarded to eligible students are listed below. There are two types of scholarships currently available in academic year 2014.

Type I: Full tuition & fees scholarship

Type II: Partial tuition & fees scholarship

Type I

Master of Civil Engineering Program, Mahidol University offer 2 scholarships to support international students with excellent academic records and strong potential to continue their education at the master's level at Mahidol University.

1.1. Numbers of scholarships: 2

1.2. Level of Study: Master degree.

1.3. Duration of awards: 2 years (4 semesters).

1.4. Detail of financial support: Tuition fees, University fees, Equipment and facilities fees, research supplies fees, and thesis fees are fully supported. Note that applicants must provide their own living expenses during their study.

1.5. Qualifications of the applicants:

- Holding any nationalities, except Thai.
- Applicants must have successfully completed their Bachelor's degree in Civil Engineering or related fields with a cumulative GPA of at least 3.00/4.00 scale. Students who are in the final academic term toward completion of a bachelor's degree and have a cumulative GPA of at least 3.00 are also eligible to apply.
- Applicants must meet the minimum English proficiency requirement of the Faculty of Graduate Studies, Mahidol University.

1.6. Application:

All candidates must submit their application through Faculty of Graduate Studies Online Application System (<http://www.grad.mahidol.ac.th/grad/admission>). Although the application can be submitted throughout the year for foreign applicants, to be considered for the scholarship, we must receive the application by June 30th, 2014. The scholarship is considered on a rolling basis, so please submit it as early as possible.

1.7. Conditions: Successful applicants will be required to sign a scholarship agreement. Financial support will commence with the first term of the relevant academic program applied for. Scholarship recipients must meet minimum performance requirement during their study by having GPA > 3.00 for each semester and shows satisfactory progress on their thesis.

TYPE II

Faculty of Graduate Study and Master of Civil Engineering Program, Mahidol University are jointly funding this scholarship to support students with excellent academic records and strong potential to continue their education at the master's level at Mahidol University.

2.1. Number of scholarships: 3

2.2. Level of Study: Master degree.

2.3. Duration of awards: 2 years(4 semesters).

2.4. Detail of financial support: Tuition fees, Equipment and facilities fees, research supplies fees, and thesis fees are fully supported. Students is responsible for their own living expense and the university fees, which is totaled to about 20,000 baht for a 2-year study.

2.5. Qualifications of the applicants:

- Holding any nationalities.
- Applicants must have successfully completed their Bachelor's degree in Civil Engineering or related fields with a cumulative GPA of at least 3.25/4.00 scale. Students who are in the final academic term toward completion of a bachelor's degree and have a cumulative GPA of at least 3.25 are also eligible to apply.
- Applicants must meet the minimum English proficiency requirement of the Faculty of Graduate Studies, Mahidol University.

2.6. Application:

All candidates must submit their application through Faculty of Graduate Studies Online Application System (<http://www.grad.mahidol.ac.th/grad/admission>). The deadline of this scholarship is in line with the Thai student application deadline, which is April 30th, 2014.

External Scholarship Opportunities:

In addition to our scholarships, you may be eligible for any scholarships or grants from an outside agency or organization. Our program is participating in many scholarship programs such as:

1. ASEA-UNINET Thailand On-Place Scholarships: This scholarship provides both tuition and living expenses. For more information, please visit: <http://asea-uninet.org/index.php?seite=64.technology-grants>
2. Faculty of Graduate Studies and Mahidol University offer 50 scholarships for lecturers, civil servants, researchers, educational institution staff of educational organizations, research institutes, government agencies only for members of ASEAN countries, who want to pursue postgraduate degree programs at Mahidol University. (See attachment 2)

มีทุนการศึกษาต่อระดับปริญญาโท หลักสูตรวิศวกรรมโยธา

(International program) เป็นทุน partial เหลือส่วนที่ต้องจ่ายน้อยมาก ๆ

สำหรับผู้มีผลการเรียนระดับปริญญาตรี เกิน 3.25 ตัวหลักสูตรมีสาขา

ย่อยหลายสาขา คือ โครงสร้าง วัสดุ ปฐพี ขนส่ง ก่อสร้าง และ GIS สนใจ

ถามมาได้ค่ะ อ.ดร.วศพร ภายในเดือน มีค นี้

Email : wasaporn.tac@mahidol.ac.th